connect & accelerate

Welcome to Grow

Grow connects startups with José de Mello Group companies in win-win partnerships

Through the access to our infrastructure and people, startups have the opportunity to test their solutions in the real market and accelerate their businesses

At the same time, we get first-hand access to new ideas and challenge our business models

“We believe that in business you may have a great idea, or even a very well thought out business plan, but if you don’t test it in the real world your chances of success will be low. That is why José de Mello launched Grow, an initiative that aims to support and nurture the early stages of your business”
